meet with an officer at the residence of Bradley (Brad) Graham Cooper and Nancy Lynn Cooper located at 104 Wallsburg Court, Cary, North Carolina regarding the welfare of Nancy Cooper. Cary Police personnel met with Jessica Adam and learned that Nancy Cooper had failed to meet with Jessica Adam as scheduled at 0800 hrs. (8:00 a.m.). Jessica Adam advised that it was unusual for Nancy Cooper to not meet with her as scheduled or call to advise that she would be delayed or not attending the scheduled meeting. Nancy Cooper's vehicle, a 2004 BMW X5, was parked in the driveway of the residence and contained her purse, which was located on the front passenger seat of the vehicle. Jessica Adam advised that she had made contact with Nancy's husband, Brad, and learned that Nancy had went running with a friend, Carrie Clark.

Brad Cooper arrived at the residence while Cary Police personnel (Ofc. D. Hayes) was speaking with Jessica Adam. Brad Cooper advised that when Nancy Cooper failed to return to the residence by 1230 hrs. (12:30 p.m.), he 'drove around' looking for her. Carrie Clark arrived at the residence a short time later and advised that she had not ran with Nancy on that date.

Brad Cooper allowed Ofc. D. Hayes and Det. A. Dismukes, who had arrived at the residence to assist regarding the 'missing person' incident, to 'check' the interior of the residence of 104 Wallsburg Court, which is the residence of both Brad and Nancy Cooper and their daughters, for Nancy Cooper or items relevant to determining her whereabouts. Ofc. Hayes observed a key ring containing a key for a 2004 BMW X5 sport-utility vehicle bearing North Carolina Registration Plate, , and a key for the residence of 104 Wallsburg Court, within the residence on a piece of furniture near the front door of the residence. Ofc. Hayes confirmed with Brad Cooper that the 2004 BMW X5 was the 'primary' vehicle of Nancy Cooper. Ofc. Hayes observed a cell phone, identified by Brad Cooper as belonging to Nancy Cooper within the residence as well.

Brad Cooper advised Ofc. Hayes and Detective A. Dismukes, that both he and Nancy had awoke around 0400 hrs. (4:00 a.m.) to care for their two year-old child. Brad Cooper took the child to his office area within the residence after making two (2) separate trips to a local grocery store to acquire items needed in the household, milk and laundry detergent. Nancy Cooper, who was on the first floor of the residence, asked Brad Cooper where a tee shirt that she usually wore while running was located because she was 'going running'. Brad Cooper stated that he heard a door of the residence 'open and close' and assumed Nancy Cooper had left the residence for her 'run'. Brad Cooper advised Ofc. Hayes and Det. Dismukes that Nancy Cooper was wearing an 'unknown tee shirt, unknown shorts and running shoes' when she left the residence.

Det. Dismukes advised that upon his observation of the interior of the residence of 104 Wallsburg Court with the consent of Brad Cooper, he noted cleaning supplies on a countertop located within the bathroom attached to the bedroom where Nancy Cooper slept and kept the majority of her personal belongings. Within this same bedroom, Det. Dismukes advised that he noted a 'dried stain' on a fitted white sheet covering the bed within this room. Det. Dismukes was unable to make a determination as to 'source' which created this 'stain' on the sheet.

Det. G. Daniels and affiant arrived at the residence to assist regarding this investigation. Interviews with friends of Nancy Cooper were performed by Det. Daniels, Det. Dismukes and affiant.

During interviews with numerous friends, to include Jessica Adam and Diana Duncan, Cary Police personnel learned that Nancy Cooper was seeking a divorce from Brad Cooper due to an extramarital affair that Brad Cooper had with another female. After learning of the affair, the couple had attempted to reconcile, but this attempt was not successful and Nancy Cooper sought to return to Canada, where her family resided, with both children. Nancy and Brad were unable to agree upon amicable custody arrangements regarding the two (2) children of the couple and both agreed to remain living in the residence of 104 Wallsburg Court, Cary, North Carolina until the divorce and custody proceedings were established and/or finalized. Brad Cooper had removed Nancy Cooper from all financial accounts and was providing her with an 'allowance' to cover food and 'daily needs' expenses for Nancy Cooper and both children. Nancy Cooper did not trust Brad Cooper and would always keep her cell phone and a key to the 2004 BMW X5 on her person regardless of where Nancy Cooper was at or what activity she was performing. A spare key to the 2004 BMW X5 motor vehicle was secured within the motor vehicle along with 'important personal documents' of Nancy Cooper, which included the passport of Nancy Lynn Cooper and documents pertaining to the divorce of Nancy and Brad Cooper. Nancy documented actions of Brad Cooper in writings. Nancy Cooper's actions regarding the key for the 2004 BMW X5 were an attempt by Nancy to prevent access by Brad Cooper to these important documents.

CONTINUATION OF SEARCH WARRANT APPLICATION IN THE MATTER OF: 104 WALLSBURG COURT, CARY, NORTH CAROLINA (WAKE COUNTY).

Cary Police personnel learned that on Friday, July 12, 2008, Nancy and Brad Cooper had an argument which took place throughout the course of the day and involved money that Nancy had been paid for assisting a friend in painting the residence of the friend. This argument was separate from a prior argument the couple had earlier during the week of July 7, 2008 which was due to Nancy's displeasure with the cleanliness of the residence at 104 Wallsburg Court upon Nancy's return from a vacation.

Brad Cooper was interviewed by Det. Daniels on Saturday, July 12, 2008. During this interview, Det. Daniels advised that he observed 'small red marks or scratches' on the left side of the back of Brad Cooper's neck. Det. Daniels was unable to determine the cause of these 'red marks or scratches' and Brad Cooper did not provide an explanation. In a separate interview with Brad Cooper on Sunday, July 13, 2008, Brad Cooper advised Det. Daniels and affiant that he had spent the morning of Saturday, July 12, 2008 from approximately 0900 hrs. (9:00 a.m.) to 1300 hrs. (1:00 p.m.) 'scrubbing' the floors, vacuuming, washing laundry and cleaning the house. Brad Cooper advised that he completed this task while awaiting the return of Nancy Cooper from her 'run' because of her displeasure regarding the cleanliness of the house upon her return from a recent vacation trip with her family on or about Saturday, July 5, 2008. During this same interview on July 13, 2008, Brad Cooper advised that he had 'guessed' at what Nancy Cooper was wearing when she left to go for her 'run' on the previous day and that in fact he had last seen Nancy Cooper wearing a white t-shirt while she was 'doing laundry' and assisting in caring for their two year-old daughter early in the morning.

The information provided by Brad Cooper regarding the extensive cleaning of the residence on Saturday, July 12, 2008 is not consistent with information gathered from multiple interviews with individuals who knew Brad and Nancy extensively during their marriage.

Brad Cooper advised that he had 'cleaned' the trunk of the 2001 BMW 325i motor vehicle while Nancy Cooper was on vacation the previous week. He allowed Det. Daniels and affiant to view the interior of the vehicle, to include the trunk area. It was noted by both Detectives that the trunk area appeared to have been recently vacuumed, but the passenger area (interior) of the vehicle was not vacuumed and contained numerous items to include mail, receipts from restaurants and ATMs. In addition, the passenger area (interior) did not appear to have been vacuumed within the past week.

Brad Cooper advised both Detectives that he had 'spilled gas' within the trunk of the vehicle a few weeks prior and wanted to 'clean it' for that reason. There was no odor of either gasoline, a cleaning solution or a fragrance within the trunk of the motor vehicle when observed by Det. Daniels and affiant.

Brad Cooper confirmed that Nancy Cooper planned to move to Canada with both children, but these plans were changed by Brad Cooper. Brad stated that he suggested multiple alternatives to Nancy and she refused all the offered alternatives. Brad Cooper advised Det. Daniels and affiant that he had taken the passports of both children into his possession, but offered to provide Nancy Cooper with the passport of one (1) child so that both Nancy and Brad would be assured that neither would attempt to leave the country with both children. Brad had possession of the passports of both children during this interview and advised Det. Daniels and affiant that Nancy had refused to 'hold' a passport of one (1) of the children.

Nancy Cooper's father, Garry Rentz, advised Det. Daniels on Monday, July 14, 2008 that he had taught Nancy to place her keys between her fingers while she ran as a means of readily available self defense in the event that she was approached or attacked while running. This statement was consistent with the information provided by friends of Nancy in regards to her always running with her keys and her cell phone. Both of these items were found within the residence of 104 Wallsburg Court, which was under the sole control of Brad Cooper, during the investigation by this affiant's agency.

On Monday, July 14, 2008, the body of a white female was located by a resident of Wake County, North Carolina and reported to the Wake County Sheriff's Office. An investigation by the Wake County Sheriff's Office determined the body to be that of a white female, who was deceased, and lying face down in a 'drainage pond' in an undeveloped phase within 'The Oaks at Meadowridge' subdivision, which is located in close proximity to the 4700 Block of Fielding Drive, Raleigh, North Carolina in Wake County. This location is less than three (3) miles from the residence of Nancy and Brad Cooper. The deceased white female had died as a result of 'suspicious circumstances' based upon a joint investigation by the Wake County Sheriff's Office, the Cary Police Department, the City-County Bureau of Identification (Wake County) and the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner.
